

ALL FIT ADJUNCT CLASSROOM FACULTY

You are cordially invited to the:

FIT Adjunct Summer Institute: Writing to Cross Disciplines

June 6 and 7, 2006

Led by faculty from Bard College and FIT, the 2006 Adjunct Institute will explore ways in which writing can be used as a learning tool, a means for both expressing learning and arriving at understanding.

Tuesday, June 6 9:00 am – 5:00 pm

A workshop led by faculty from the Institute for Writing and Thinking at Bard College. This workshop focuses on writing as a process for learning, one that can be used to cross and make connections among the disciplines.

Breakfast and lunch will be served.

Wednesday, June 7 9:00 am – 12:00 pm

A workshop led by FIT faculty from the Educational Skills, English and Speech, and major departments. This session builds on the previous day's outcomes and will focus on strategies for using writing in the FIT classroom and making use of writing resources available to FIT faculty.

Breakfast will be served.

Participating FIT adjunct faculty will receive a $100 merit award and certificate upon completion of the two workshops. Enrollment in the Summer Institute will be on a first-come basis – apply now! Please submit your name, department, and contact information to Celia Baez, celia_baez@fitnyc.edu, C913, no later than May 10. All applicants will be contacted regarding acceptance and location of the workshop by May 16, 2006.
